Nudie Jeans announces CCTV relaunch and first artist Sarah Klang.

On Sunday 11th February you are invited to tune in via the Nudie Jeans Youtube channel for a unique and exclusive live music experience with Sweden's newest star, Sarah Klang. The session will be recorded live before an intimate audience and broadcasted direct from the Nudie Jeans headquarters based in Gothenburg, Sweden.

For those not yet familiar with Sarah Klang's sound - it is like nothing else and her voice encapsulates the listener from the first tone - this can be heard in her singles "Sleep", "Strangers" and "Left Me On Fire". She has been praised and heralded around the globe and the highly anticipated debut album "Love In The Milky Way" is to be released Friday 9th February just a couple of days before the CCTV performance.

CCTV By Nudie Jeans first launched 2009 and the platform has aired live from various Nudie Jeans Repair Shops around the world and been host to the likes of Little Dragon and Band Of Horses. This is the first CCTV session from Nudie Jeans HQ.
